23. Do any of you believe that cryptocurrency should not be regulated by the federal government? Do you have any opinions about the United States Government, the Securities and Exchange Commission, commonly referred to as “the SEC,” or any other federal, state, or local law enforcement agency? If so, what are those opinions and why do you hold them? Is there anything about those opinions that would affect your ability to render a fair and impartial verdict in this case?

24. Do you follow news stories about the criminal justice system or the prison system? If so, did what you read in those stories influence your opinion of the fairness and effectiveness of the criminal justice system or prison system such that you would not be able to be a fair or impartial juror?

25. Do you follow major criminal trials or investigations in the media? If yes, which criminal trials or investigations have you followed in the past or do you follow now? Has the media’s portrayal of the criminal trials or investigations in the past few years caused you to mistrust law enforcement?

26. Do you have any negative or positive opinions of the Department of Justice?

27. Do you have any personal, religious, moral, philosophical, or other beliefs that would make it difficult for you to sit in judgment of another person, or that would prevent you from applying the law given to you by the Court to the evidence of the case? If yes, please explain.

28. Other than what has already been mentioned, do you have any medical or physical conditions, or any other issue, that would make it difficult for you to serve as a juror in this case, such as problems with your hearing, sight, or understanding of the English language?

29. Is there any other reason whatsoever that you have not previously disclosed which would affect your ability to serve as a fair and impartial juror or which would cause you to prefer not to sit as a juror in this case?
